

Honorable John B. Anderson
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Anderson:

STAT

✓ and
Thank you for your recent letter concerning your constituent,
Mr. [redacted] who is interested in employment with the Central Intelligence Agency.

It is difficult for us to be precise in advising a young person on how to prepare for a career in intelligence work because it embraces numerous and widely divergent vocational fields. We are usually interested in young people who have demonstrated academic achievement in international relations, political science, economics, the applied sciences, and foreign languages. In addition, there are frequently openings for junior intelligence analysts or junior editors who have studied English and journalism.

We are enclosing a brochure describing employment opportunities in the Agency which also contains information concerning general requirements. This information may be helpful to Mr. [redacted] in planning his course of study.

STAT

Your interest in writing to us in Mr. [redacted] s behalf is appreciated and we hope that the information supplied above will be helpful to you in responding to him. If his interest in our service continues, we shall be glad to receive an application from him several months prior to completion of his college work.

STAT

Sincerely,

(EXECUTIVE REGISTRY FILE Q67/4004)
